DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1-24 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-25 of copending Application No. 11/628,617. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the ingredients are similar and the concentrations overlap. The examiner is grateful for the chemistry lesson, but claim 15 of the copending application definitely discloses polycarbonate. The rejection is maintained.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

> The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. It is not known whether the cited average molecular weight is weight average, number average, viscosity average, peak average or Z average molecular weight. One of ordinary skill in the art would have to undertake undue experimentation in order to establish the molecular weight limitations. See In re Wands, 8 USPQ2d 1400, 1404 (Fed. Cir. 1988). Careful reading if paragraphs 00031 and 0041 of U.S. 2007/0082995 did not shed any light on the question whatsoever. The rejection is maintained.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

6. Claims 1, 3, 5, 9-12, 22 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Jaquiss 3,833,537, Aramaki et al. 2003/0171494 or Teijin LTD JP-51-59946.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

8. Claims 1-24 re rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bayer Aktiengesellschaft CA 1,219,390, in view of Wittmann et al. 5,061,745 or Aramaki et al. 2003/0171494.

9. The rejections are maintained in view of the "Response to Arguments" set forth below.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments filed 12/31/08 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. What was the purpose of making the inventive composition by the inventors of the prior art, what the properties of the resulting blend are and what other compounds are present in the resulting composition is, to quote Perry Mason, is utterly irrelevant, incompetent and immaterial. Applicants do not claim a halogen free composition, just the presence of a particular halogen free flame retardant. The maxim that a compound and its properties are one and the same thing as a matter of patent law applies in this situation. In re Papesch, 137 USPQ 43, 51 (CCPA 1963). The word comprising permits the presence of any additional component which does not interfere with the invention. Discovery if o new property or use of a previously known composition, even if unobvious from the prior art, cannot impart patentability to claims to a known composition. In re Spada, 15 USPQ2d 1655 (Fed. Cir 1990); Atlas Powder Co. v. Ireco Inc. 51 USPQ2d 1943, 1947 (Fed. Cir. 1999). The rejection stands.

Conclusion

11. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Allowable Subject Matter

12. Claims 14 and 15 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
